Nursing Research Society of India (NRSI)

The inception of Nursing Research Society of India (NRSI) in 1987 has been a noteworthy milestone in the history of nursing in India. The society was formed with the intention of providing a forum to the nurses by organizing conferences and workshops throughout the country to promote the activities related to nursing research. Apart from this, the society also upholds synergistic collaboration in conducting, disseminating and utilizing of nursing research.

About the University

Yenepoya (Deemed to be University), located at Deralakatte, about 15 kilometers from the port city, Mangaluru Karnataka. Mangaluru is a picturesque portal city, characterized by its pristine beaches, ghats and calm localities. Nature is the closest companion on the campus that houses institutes offering the best in education. The university consists of 11 constituent units under its ambit offering various courses including PhD and post doctoral fellowships. Today, the Yenepoya (Deemed to be University) has on its rolls nearly 7177 students and 595 Faculty across various disciplines. The institution ensures high standards of academic performance and renders quality health care services. The University is accredited with NAAC 'A' and is ranked 86 among the top 100 universities in the country as per the NIRF (National Institution Ranking Framework) rankings 2020.

About the Host Institution

Yenepoya Nursing College is a constituent unit of Yenepoya (Deemed to be University). The college has state-of-the-art facilities and eco-friendly campus. The college offers General Nursing and Midwifery (GNM), Basic B.Sc Nursing, Post Basic B.Sc Nursing, M.Sc. Nursing and PhD in Nursing under the Faculty of Nursing.

Experienced and well qualified faculty ensure quality of education by incorporating innovative teaching-learning activities that focus on clinical competence and personal attention to students. The college also creates an environment for the generation of new knowledge through research. The college is attached to the Yenepoya Medical College Hospital, a Multi speciality Medical College teaching hospital accredited by NABH which offers various modalities of a treatment facility in both broad speciality and super speciality services to the Society.

Overview of the Conference

Research and publication are complemented to evidence-based practice in teaching, training, and clinical care. Publication is regarded as an asset that enables authors to gain recognition in their areas of expertise. Implementing research and quality publication is crucial for a career in science. This conference is aimed at enriching and strengthening nurse researchers.
