

26.11.2021

Yenepoya (Deemed to be University)
Yenepoya Nursing College
Report on Inauguration of 24th National conference on the theme "Strengthening Nursing Scholarship through Publications"

Yenepoya Nursing College, a constituent college of Yenepoya (Deemed to be) University, Mangaluru organized a National e-Conference in collaboration with Nursing Research Society of India (NRSI) on 26th & 27th November 2021, on the theme "Strengthening Nursing Scholarship through Publications". The conference was inaugurated at Indoor Auditorium, Yenepoya (Deemed to be) University, Mangaluru. Chief guest Dr. Bontha V Babu, Scientist G (Director Grade) and Head of Socio-Behavioral and Health Systems Research, ICMR, in his address said that in spite of multiple barriers, the nursing research is progressing well in India. Dr. Assuma Beevi, Vice President NRSI, congratulated the team for organizing the event and highlighted the importance of nursing research and publication. Dr. Anil Sharma, Secretary of NRSI, in his speech stressed the role of mentors in shaping the publications. Dr. Vijayakumar M, Vice Chancellor Yenepoya (Deemed to be) University, released the conference souvenir and delivered the presidential address. He said that faculty must cultivate the habit of publishing the research in quality journals which, not only promotes the professional growth but also improves the institution's national and international ranking and accreditation. Dr. Leena K C, Principal, Yenepoya Nursing College welcomed the gathering and Dr. Priya Reshma Aranha, Organising Secretary, delivered the vote of thanks. Mrs. Sharin Neetal Dsouza compered the program. Dr. B Shreepathi Rao, Pro Vice Chancellor, Deans, Centre heads and Faculty of constituent colleges of Yenepoya Deemed to be university were present at the venue. Around 350 participants from across 26 states of the country and abroad participated in the conference through online mode.

Priya Reshma Aranha
26/11/21
Organizing Secretary

Dr. Vijayakumar M
26/11/2021
Organizing Chairperson